

Contents

Acknowledgments

Introduction: Thinking Beyond the State

Johanna O. Zulueta

Part I: Challenges to Policies

- 1 Immigration Policy in Contemporary Japan: The Dilemma between Control and Coexistence 1
Junichi Akashi

- 2 A Decade after the Birth of JPEPA: Overcoming Policy Failure of Healthcare Workers' Migration Scheme 32
Ron Bridget Vilog

- 3 Filipino Domestic Workers to Japan: Issues and Concerns 62
Maria Rosario Piquero-Ballescás,
with Orlando Ballescás and Hiroya Takamatsu

- 4 Impediments on Reaching Human Security for Migrants: Prospects for the Philippines and Japan 97
Benjamin San Jose

Part II: Agency in Structure

- |   |  |     |
|---|--|-----|
| 5 | Parenting Experiences of Filipino Mothersin Japanese-Filipino Intercultural MarriagesMelvin Jabar           | 133 |
| 6 | Reconsidering Nationality Issues ofJapanese-Filipinos from the Perspectiveof NGOs and YouthMegumi Hara  | 157 |
| 7 | Filipino Rap Music as an Arbiter of Migrant Visibilityin Japan: The Case of EspadaYellowbelle Duaqui | 186 |

Part III: Communities and Integration

- |   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 8 | " Bonds, Bridges and Links of Hope ": Migrant SupportOrganizations (MSOs) as Agents of ImmigrantFamily IntegrationJocelyn Celero                | 221 |
| 9 | Migrant Women in a Big City Entertainment Area:What have Filipino women changed in Sakae-HigashiArea, Naka-Ward, Nagoya City, 2002-2006?Sachi Takahata | 255 |

- |              |  |     |
|--------------|--|-----|
| Contributors |  | 281 |
|--------------|--|-----|