

Space in the Diaspora: Abstracts

The Plight of Sama Dilaut: Badjao Migration from the Philippines to Malaysia and Indonesia

Karol Notob

This study aims to present the lives of the Sama Dilaut in Malaysia and the Philippines; their activities, the factors of emigration, and the actions of the government.

Jollibee as “Pambasang Manok” and Fast Food Gastrodiplomacy in Singapore and Vietnam: An Exploratory Study

Bryan Ugaddan

Gastrodiplomacy is a growing trend in representing and introducing a country's culture in another. This study aims to situate Jollibee as a gastrodiplomat, characterizing its efforts as “pinoy pride (or pinoy fried)” in ASEAN countries such as Singapore and Vietnam.

Away yet Home: Challenges, Modalities and Consequences of Parenting from a Distance among Filipino Labor Migrants

Portia Soriano

This qualitative study introduces a family perspective in formulating appropriate policies and forms of intervention for the welfare of our Filipino Labor Migrants and their families.