TABLE OF CONTENTS

ix FOREWORD

xvii ACKNOWLEDGMENT

xix INTRODUCTION

xxi Plural Traditions
xxiii Filipino Approaches to Health and Medicine
xxvi Study in Philippine History
xxviii Notes

1 1

Confluence of Traditions: Traditional Medicine, 16th and 17th Centuries

3 The Humors
7 Holistic Medicine
12 Specialized Medicine
14 Health, Hygiene, and Beauty
16 Foundations of Traditional Medicine
19 Notes

26 2

The Observations of Alcína: A Catalog of Traditional Remedies for Everyday Life

27 Multipurpose Herbs and Plants
29 Poison Purgers
29 Ladies' Choice
30 Collectors' Items
36 A Defined Medical Tradition
38 Notes

40 3

Botanical Expeditions and Scientific Investigations: Traditional Medicine in the Spanish Enlightenment, 18th and 19th Centuries

43 Science, Commerce, and Spanish Botanical Studies
48 An Officer and A Nobleman
51 Utilitarianism and the Real Jardín Botánico
53 Notes

57 4

Belief and Science: Traditional Medicine in the 19th Century

65 Midwives and the Birth of Public Health Care Providers
69 The Continued Patronage of the Herbolario
74 Notes

79 5

The Scientific Identification and Practical Application of Philippine Medicinal Plants and Herbs

80 Manuel Blanco and the Flora de Filipinas
86 Recognition and Reforms in Traditional Medicine
88 Notes

90 6

"Making the Tropics Habitable and Healthful": Traditional Medicine, the State, and the Beginnings of Public Health

92 Bringing Modern Medicine to the Colony
95 First Impressions of Manila
97 Organizing Public Health Work
103 Public Health alongside Filipino Traditional Medicine
104 Traditional Medicine, the Laboratory, and the State
109 From Traditional Medicine to Public Health: Charting the History of Medicine in the Philippines
111 Notes

119 CONCLUSION

124 Notes

125 A NOTE ON THE SOURCES

135 APPENDIX 1

Plants at the Real Jardín Botánico

142 Notes

143 APPENDIX 2

A Compendium of Filipino Traditional Medicinal Plants Recorded from the 16th to the 19th Century

202 Notes

204 APPENDIX 3

Plates

207 BIBLIOGRAPHY

231 INDEX

249 ABOUT THE AUTHOR